

Rachmaninoff To-morrow

THE most outstanding event of the musical season takes place to-morrow at the Colston Hall, where the world-famous and greatest composer - pianist, Rachmaninoff, will appear in the Lockier-Holt series of international celebrity subscription concerts. His programme comprises a unique selection from the world's composers, affording a rare degree of variety which should appeal to all lovers of music in Bristol and district. A few seats may be booked at the music salon of Mr Charles H. Lockier, 29-31, Queen's Road.