

Rachmaninoff May Make Musical Movie Shorts

Providence, R. I., Feb. 14.—(AP.)

—Sergei Rachmaninoff, the eminent Russian pianist and composer, said here last night in a brief interview after a concert that he may soon go to Hollywood to make a number of musical movie shorts.

Mr. Rachmaninoff also said he has steadfastly refused to play on the radio because he doesn't like the way music—and particularly piano music “comes out” over the air. He nevertheless feels, he declared, that the radio has been a beneficial medium toward raising the musical taste and cultural level of the American public. The virtuoso is reported to have refused once an offer of $10,000 for an hour's broadcast.
