

RACHMANINOFF RECITAL

Sir,—I think all music lovers will agree with "Nemo," writing on Thursday's recital.

It was an insult to Serge Rachmaninoff putting him in a barn such as the Drill Hall. I would bet that he doesn't give a recital under such conditions in Soviet Russia.

And the form we sat on (3s.) was lovely and soft, and comfortable; if anyone moved it would see-saw up and down.—Yours, etc.,

E. A. BROUGHALL.
