

Kreisler Hears Pittsburgh Symphony

TWO WORLD-FAMOUS musical geniuses . . . Rachmaninoff and Fritz Kreisler . . . heard Pittsburgh's Symphony Orchestra play last night in Syria Mosque.

Rachmaninoff appeared with the orchestra as piano soloist . . . Kreisler was there . . . just as you and you and you were . . . to hear the concert.

Kreisler will give a concert tonight in Syria Mosque . . . his first appearance here in two years. His concert will be the third of the May Beegle series.

The great violinist slipped unobtrusively into a box last night to hear our symphony . . . during intermission he visited back stage with Rachmaninoff and Michel Gusikoff, who was directing.
