

Rachmaninoff to Follow Printed Program Tonight

The Rachmaninoff concert tonight at Municipal Auditorium will adhere to the printed program distributed at the door, contrary to the announcement Sunday that there would be several changes.

Mrs. John F. Lyons, who was notified of the changes, said Monday that the pianist announced he would be glad to play the original program, when he learned the programs already had been printed.

He will arrive today from St. Louis to play the opening concert of the Civic Music Association season, beginning at 8:15 p. m.

Only members may attend, with the exception of out-of-town visitors, for whom guest cards may be obtained.
