

Rachmaninoff To Give Recital

Sergei Rachmaninoff, noted pianist and composer, will give his Buffalo recital next week Wednesday evening, February 15, in Elmwood Music Hall and the sale of tickets opened today at Denton, Cottier & Daniels. Rachmaninoff has been heard in a great variety of programs during his past nine years of recitals in this city, but each year he offers still another program which can not but interest his audience. The program for next Wednesday has not been previously published, but is as follows:

1. Sonata quasi una Fantasia in C sharp minorBeethoven
2. Fantasia quasi Sonata (after reading Dante)Liszt
3. FantasiaChopin
4. (a) ScherzoChopin
(b) Polonaise, C minor ,Chopin
(c) Polonaise, E flat major...Chopin
5. Fairy Tale, Opus 34, No. 1...Medtner
6. PreludeRachmaninoff
7. Valse—Caprice, No. 1.Strauss-Tausig

The concert, as usual, is under the management of Michael-Kraft.