

Rachmaninoff Plans Unusual Program for Ann Arbor

Sergei Rachmaninoff, Russian pianist, has prepared a particularly attractive program for his appearance at 8:15 Wednesday evening in Hill auditorium on the Choral Union series of concerts.

The program follows:

Sonata, No. 14 Mozart
Allegro

Adagio

Allegretto

(a) Sonata, D minor

(b) Sonata, C-major Scarlatti

Carnaval Schumann

Preambule, Pierrot, Arlequin,

Valse noble, Eusebius, Florestan, Coquette, Replique,

Sphynxes, Papillons, Lettres dansantes, Chiarina, Chopin,

Estrella, Reconnaissance, Patalon et Colombine, Valse allemande, Paganini, Aveu, Promenade, Pause

March des Davids bandler.

(a) Nocturne

(b) Valse

(c) Ballade Chopin

Moment Musical ... Rachmaninoff

Liebesfreud

..... Kreisler-Rachmaninoff

Patrons are requested to arrive early as the first number on the program is long and the doors will be closed on time. Holders of season tickets also are requested to detach the proper coupon from their season tickets before leaving home and present it only for admission.