

Sergei Rachmaninoff, world-famous Russian pianist and composer, will make his only concert appearance of the current season at Poli's Theater next Wednesday afternoon, March 20, as the final attraction in Mrs. Wilson-Greene's artists' course and the last Wilson-Greene concert of the 1929 season. Mr. Rachmaninoff has selected a superb program that opens with Mozart's Sonata No.

SERGEI RACHMANINOFF

14, Allegro, Adagio, and Allegretto. Two Scarlatti Sonatas, three Chopin selections, Mr. Rachmaninoff's own "Moment Musical," and his own arrangement of Kreisler's "Liebesfreud" are included, though the principal number seems to be Schuman's "Carnaval." Seats are now on sale at Mrs. Wilson-Greene's Concert Bureau, 1300 G St. N. W.
