

Rachmaninoff In a Concert Wednesday

Will Present a Program of Chopin and Liszt in Evening in the Jefferson Hotel Gold Room.

SERGEI RACHMANINOFF, the Russian pianist, who gives a piano recital in the Gold Room of the Hotel Jefferson on Wednesday evening at 8:30 will confine himself to two of the leading contributors to piano literature—Chopin and Liszt. The first half of the program will be devoted to seven compositions by the former and the second half is composed of four numbers by Liszt. The use of the Gold Room for Rachmaninoff's recital has elicited expressions of genuine satisfaction from numerous music lovers, who value the more intimate atmosphere provided by the setting arranged for the concert.

The program for Wednesday evening follows:

Ballade, F Minor.....	Chopin
Rondo, E Flat Major.....	Chopin
Nocturne, B Major.....	Chopin
Valse.....	Chopin
Fantaisie Impromptu.....	Chopin
Scherzo, E Major.....	Chopin
Scherzo, B Minor.....	Chopin
Ballade, B Minor.....	Liszt
Valse Impromptu.....	Liszt
Sonnetto 104 Del Petrarca.....	Liszt
Polonaise, E Major.....	Liszt