

Romantic School Is Featured On Rachmaninoff's Program

Rachmaninoff, great Russian pianist and composer, will give a concert in Emery Auditorium next Tuesday evening. He is one of the favorites among musicians who visit this city and may always be relied upon to give a concert of noteworthy character. His concert is under the management of J. H. Thuman, at whose office in the Baldwin store seats are on sale.

Rachmaninoff will be greeted by a large and highly musical audience. It is generally admitted that the audiences which attend his concerts represent the highest musical average of any artist appearing here. It is also noteworthy that many students from various parts of the neighborhood come to hear him.
