

Rachmaninoff to Play

Gifted Russian Pianist to Give Recital in Elmwood Music Hall Tuesday.

ON Tuesday evening, Feb. 13, lovers of music will gather to see and hear an artist of great fame when the Zorah B. Berry Philharmonic concert presents Sergei Rachmaninoff, Russian pianist. The recital, which is the seventh in the Philharmonic series, will be held in Elmwood Music hall.

PROGRAM

VariationsMozart
Moonlight SonataBeethoven
Adagio sostenuto
Allegretto
Presto agitato
BalladeChopin
Two MazurkasChopin
ScherzoChopin
Children's Corner SuiteDebussy
Doctor Gradus as Parnassum
Serenade of the Doll
The Snow Is Dancing
The Little Shepherd
Gollwog's Cakewalk
Three EtudesRachmaninoff
Sonnetto del Petrarca, E-major . .Liszt
Voices of the WoodsLiszt
Valse OublieeLiszt
Rhapsodie No. 11Liszt

* * *

benefit of First Settlement Music school.

* * *

THE "Pop" concert program for American night, Sunday evening, Feb. 11, in Elmwood Music hall, by the Buffalo Community orchestra, Theophile Wendt, conductor, Mrs. Horace B. Pomeroy, soloist, reads as follows:

March, Stars and Stripes Forever
.John Philip Sousa
American Fantasia . . Victor Herbert
Hail, Columbia.
Swanee River.
The Girl I Left Behind Me.
Dixieland.
Columbia The Gem of the Ocean
(Military Band)
The Star Spangled Banner.
Habanera, from Natoma
.Victor Herbert
Natchez on the Hill, Virginian
Country DancesJohn Powell
Symphonic Poem, Victory Ball . .
.Ernest Schelling
Second and Third Movements