

RACHMANINOFF COMPLAINS

Appeals Additional Income Tax Claims Against Him

Washington, Nov. 10 (AP)—Sergei Rachmaninoff, widely known concert pianist, petitioned the Board of Tax Appeals today for the redetermination of additional income-tax claims of $19,152.

The petitioner gave his address as New York. He charged the Bureau of Internal Revenue was in error in including in his own taxable income certain funds received by the Locust Corporation through his concerts and from the R. C. A.-Victor Corporation.
