

NOTED PIANIST GIVES RECITAL AT SKIDMORE

SARATOGA SPRINGS. — Sergei Rachmaninoff, noted pianist and composer, delighted a large crowd of music lovers of the city last night as he appeared at Skidmore college in his first recital in this city.

Rachmaninoff displayed the perfect technique, and the depth of feeling that have made his recitals in New York so popular that seats were sold out weeks before the date of his recital.

Prof. Stanley Saxon, of the music department of Skidmore college, is preparing a critical review of the recital, which will be published later.
