

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS SERGEI RACHMANINOFF

Durham, Oct. 31.—Music lovers, piano students from half a dozen colleges and conservatories and teachers of music from many sections of the State heard Sergei Rachmaninoff, Russian pianist-composer, in a brilliant recital at Duke University tonight.

Rachmaninoff's pre-intermission numbers were compositions of Beethoven, Scarlatti and Chopin. His second group comprised nine titles, including the Barcarolle by Rubinstein, and two of his own compositions, "Etude" and "Prelude."
