

RACHMANINOFF.

One of the most imposing musical events of the season will take place at Parsons's Theater this evening when Frank A. Sedgwick, manager of the Sedgwick concert course, will present Sergei Rachmaninoff, the foremost Russian pianist-composer of the day. The great Russian master will make his local debut before a sold out house that will include the leaders of the intellectual, musical, and fashionable circles of the city. The concert will begin at 8:15 o'clock. The program will be: (1) Ballade, No. 2, Liszt; (2) Ballade, opus 24, Greig; (3) Ballade, No. 3, Nocturne, opus 27, Chopin; Valse D flat major, Scherzo, opus 39, Elegie, opus 3, Rachmaninoff; (4) Polka de W. R.; (5) Etude (Capriccio), opus 28, Schnanyi; (6) Liebesleid, Kreisler-Rachmaninoff; (7) Tarantells (Venezia e Napoli), Liszt.