

Rachmaninoff to Play In Aid of Babies' Dairy

The work of the Babies' Dairy Association, which was founded by Mrs. Adrian Hoffman Joline, will benefit considerably from the piano recital which will be given by Sergei Rachmaninoff next Tuesday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria under distinguished patronage. Mrs. Oren Root is president of the association, and although she now is abroad her interest continues. In the course of the last year hundreds of babies were fed and thousands of quarts of milk distributed, and during the hot months many tons of ice were supplied to the various dairy stations. Miss Martha Maynard of 129 East Seventy-sixth street is disposing of what boxes remain unsold and also tickets of admission without reserved places at $5 each.

Among those who already have obtained boxes or seats are Mmes. Jonathan Bulkley, John Henry Hammond, Herbert McBride, Lydig Hoyt, Edward S. Harkness, Walter B. James, Henry Villard, P. A.
