

RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT

RACHMANINOFF, PIANIST, WILL BE HEARD AT LYCEUM.

Is a Composer as Well as a Performer and Pronounced by Some the Most Commanding Figure Since Retirement of the Great Paderewski.

Rachmaninoff, the noted Russian pianist, will be Mrs. Francis Henry Hill's next attraction. The date is next Friday night, Jan. 20, at the Lyceum Theater, and seats will be ready at the box office after Wednesday morning.

Sergei Rachmaninoff is said to be the most commanding figure in the musical world, as a pianist, since the retirement of Paderewski, and his concert tours in America have been in the nature of ovations. He not only is a performer, but is a composer and a number of his own compositions will be played by him upon his appearance in St. Joseph. Lovers of the piano are looking forward to an exceptional treat in the Rachmaninoff engagement. The program for the evening follows:

Aria con Variazioni	Handel
Nevelette in F sharp minor.....	Schumann
Invitation to the Dance.....	Weber-Tausig
Ballade, Mazurka, Nocturne, Valse, Pol- onaise	Chopin
Prelude in C sharp minor.....	Rachmaninoff
Polka de W. R.....	Rachmaninoff
Minuet	Bizet-Rachmaninoff
Sonnetto (No. 104) del Petrarca.....	Liszt
Galop Chromatique	Liszt