

NOTED ARTIST HELPS RELIEF

Rachmaninoff Autographs Programs to Aid Cause.

Sergei Rachmaninoff added $231 to the Marion County share of the Indiana Russian famine fund yesterday when he autographed programs for contributors at the close of his concert at the Murat Theater.

Mrs. Booth Tarkington, Marion County chairman of the Russian famine fund, has called a meeting of her committee at her home, 1100 North Pennsylvania street, for 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which other plans will be developed for the county's share in the State collection. Contributors yesterday who obtained autographs were:

Mrs. Lafayette Page, Joseph H. Spellmire, Theresa C. Wolsdorf, Anna M. Stanton, Omer Patterson, Noblesville; Miss Lucile White, Noblesville; Mrs. F. D. Norvall, Anderson; Mrs. C. T. Eichelsdorfer, Shelbyville; Nellie B. Shaffer, Camilla Boehme, Mrs. Charles Means, Shelbyville; Irving Allen, Margaret Teachout, Miss Emelie Zitzlaff, Martha Bryan, Mrs. Booth Tarkington, Mrs. Ona B. Talbott, Alice A. Smith, Mrs. Martin Rehfuss, Mrs. Jessie Thiebaud Clapp, Eunice J. Peirce, Mrs. Clara G. Herron, Mary Louise Shields, June S. Mitchell, Ruby Lee, Lela Harrell, Virginia Bowen, Bloomington; James Owen Hendricks, Danville; Lucile M. Windette, Chicago; Dora and Alfred E. Evans, Miss Lena Zitzlaff, Elmer Kline, Helen M. Irvin, Ella M. Newkirk, Ethel Cleland, Lenora Hanecker, Herman W. Kothe, Charles S. Stone, Ruby M. Grosvenor, Walter Heitlam, R. W. Smitheram, L. C. Huesmann.

Programs received by Mrs. Tarkington and her aides too late to be signed yesterday will be forwarded to the artist at Chicago and will be returned to State headquarters of the Indiana Russian famine fund at 909-10 Lemcke building.