

EVERY FACILITY GIVEN TO HEAR RACHMANINOFF

Famous Russian Pianist
To Appear At Palace
Theatre Tomorrow Afternoon.

Every facility is being afforded by Rudolph Steinert, under whose auspices, Sergei Rachmaninoff, the wonderful Russian pianist, is appearing at Poli's New Palace theatre, tomorrow afternoon, for as many music lovers as possible to hear the versatile genius, whose remarkable playing has aroused such a sensation in other cities. In addition to engaging the largest auditorium available, Poli's New Palace theatre, Mr. Steinert has reduced prices very materially for this concert, and has arranged in addition to the sale at M. Steinert and Son's, 915 Main street, which will continue through this afternoon, for a further sale of seats at the box office commencing at 10 a. m. Mr. Steinert has so arranged the distribution of seats that he is able to pledge a seat to everyone attending.

The program for tomorrow's recital follows:

- 1—Improvisation, opus 31. N. Mediner
- 2—Sonata Appassionata... Beethoven
Allegro assai
Andante con moto
Allegro ma non troppo.
- 3—(a)—Nocturne
(b)—Valse
(c)—Sonata, opus 35
Grave Doppio movimento
Scherzo
Marche Funebre
Finale Chopin
- 4—(a)—Melodie
(b)—Serenade Rachmaninoff
- 5—"The Contrabandits"
—Schuman-Tausig
- 6—"The Beautiful Blue Danube"
—Strauss-Schultz-Evler
Steinway Piano

In addition to the numbers on the program, it is Rachmaninoff's custom to be generous with encores, and his own works are usually demanded.

Tomorrow's concert will be a gathering place for music lovers all over southwestern Connecticut. Large parties will attend from Ansonia, Derby, Norwalk, Stamford, New Haven and outlying towns.