

RACHMANINOFF TO COME IN PRIVATE CAR FOR CONCERT

When Sergi Rachmaninoff, famous Russian pianist, comes to Birmingham for a concert Monday evening, January 22, Mrs. Rachmaninoff will accompany him in his private car. The great pianist's wife has been traveling with him throughout the present tour, which extends from one end of the country to the other.

Mrs. Rachmaninoff assists in looking after her husband's business arrangements, while he spends most of his time at the piano. Their spare time is spent together sightseeing in the various cities in which they visit and occasionally visiting a movie. Rachmaninoff finds much rest and enjoyment in watching a good moving picture, especially one with a deep, serious thought; however, he sometimes expresses a desire to see a hilarious comedy.

Besides Mrs. Rachmaninoff, the party will consist of his personal manager, valet, special piano tuner and Rachmaninoff's pet South African monkey, "Zulu."
