

World's Greatest Pianist At Washington Monday

Residents of Canonsburg are looking forward to the concert to be given by Serge Rachmaninoff, the world's greatest pianist, at the Capitol Theater, Washington, Monday evening, February 26. It is a rare opportunity to hear so celebrated an artist without a trip to one of the large cities and many will doubtless grasp the chance to hear him in Washington. A glance at the following program will also prove an irresistible magnet, for it includes the most popular of the Beethoven Sonates, the "Appassionata." Also two of Rachmaninoff's most popular compositions. The following numbers are announced. Tickets can be procured thru the Ben Reynolds Music Store in Washington and at the Capitol Theater previous to the concert.

Sonaata Appassionata . . . . . Beethoven
 Nocturne—Polonaise . . . . . Chopin
 Carnaval . . . . . Schumann
 Preamble, Pierrot, Arlequin,
 Valse noble, Florestan, Coquette,
 Repuique, Eusebius, Sphinxes,
 Papillons, Lettres, Dansantes,
 Chiarina, Chopin, Estrella, Reconnaissance, Pantalon ea Colombine, Valse Allenmande, Paganini, Aven. Promenade, Pause, Marces des Davidsbundler contre les Philistines.
 Prelude, C-sharp minor, Rachmaninof
 Serenade . . . . . Rachmaninof
 Jongleuse . . . . . Moszkowski
 Campanella . . . . . Liszt