
WINTER FIRM SAVED RUSSIAN FROM MIXUP

Altoonans who heard the remarkable performance of Sergei Rachmaninoff at the Mishler theatre Tuesday evening little realize how near they came to not hearing the program. When the artist arrived here his two Steinway pianos were among the missing, and it seems hardly likely that he would have consented to go on with any other instrument. However, the F. A. Winter & Son company came to the rescue and furnished a wonderful Steinway for the evening. After the performance, Mr. Rachmaninoff congratulated Mr. Arthur Winter, of the company, upon the excellent tone and mechanism of the instrument.
