

FIRST LADY GIVES WHITE HOUSE MUSICALE

Official, Diplomatic and Resident Society Represented at Function — Rachmaninoff Plays for Company.

By EVELYN C. HUNT.

MRS. COOLIDGE was hostess yesterday afternoon at a musicale, her guests including the wives of officials and diplomats with a sprinkling of residential society. Rachmaninoff, the famous Russian pianist, was the artist who performed in the East Room, where the company gathered after being presented to their hostess by the White House aides. Tea followed in the state dining room, where Mrs. John H. Bartlett, wife of the First Assistant Postmaster General, and Mrs. David H. Blair, wife of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Mrs. Adolphus Andrews, wife of the President's naval aide, presided at the tea table.

The program was as follows: Nocturne, Mazourka, Valse, Ballade (Chopin); "Humoresque" (Tschalkowsky); "Troika" (Tschalkowsky); "Hopka" (Moussorgsky-Rachmanineff); "Liebeslied" (Kreisler-Rachmaninoff); "La Jongleuse" (Moszkowski); and "Faust Fantasy" (Gounod-Liszt).

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, of Brockton, Mass., have arrived in Washington and are guests of the President and Mrs. Coolidge at the White House. Before the musicale yesterday afternoon Mrs. Coolidge received a small group of members of the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which is meeting here this week.
