

RACHMANINOFF IS HERE

Concert Programme Tomorrow
Night to Be Brilliant.

A brilliant and unhackneyed programme of piano selections is announced by Sergei Rachmaninoff, eminent Russian composer-pianist, for his concert here tomorrow night at the auditorium under the direction of Steers & Coman. Two of his own compositions—the “Etude Tableau” and one of his favorite preludes—hold special interest for both musicians and music lovers of the city. A group of three Chopin compositions, a scherzo, etude and ballade, is also scheduled — and Rachmaninoff excels in his interpretations of the famous Polish composer. A piano sonata — the Schumann G minor—will be among the most interesting of the programme numbers.

The programme in full follows:

- “Caprice, Air de Ballet” from Alceste Gluck-Saint-Saens
- “Sonata, G-minor,” presto-andantino, allegro marcato, presto..... Schumann
- (a) “Scherzo,” (b) “Etude,” (c) “Ballade” Chopin
- (a) “Etude Tableau,” (b) “Prelude” Rachmaninoff
- Valse, “Kunstlerleben”..... Strauss-Godowsky
