

Rachmaninoff to Play of His Own Piano Compositions

The program which Sergei Rachmaninoff, Russian composer - pianist, will give Wednesday night at The Auditorium under Steers & Coman management, will be of sterling musical worth and at the same time of much popular appeal.

Music lovers will be glad to know that Rachmaninoff will play two of his own compositions, including one of his famous preludes. His first number will be a Beethoven sonata.

The program follows:

Sonata, opus 26.....	Beethoven
Funerailles .....	Liszt
Two Etudes.....	Mendelssohn
Etude Symphonique.....	Schumann
Fairy Tale.....	Medtner
Two Etudes Tableau....	Rachmaninoff
Prelude .....	Rachmaninoff
Valse .....	Strauss-Tausig