

The Rachmaninoff concert was the mecca at Toledo Sunday afternoon for a number of the music lovers of Fremont. The great Russian pianist delighted 2000 concert goers at the Coliseum, and the vast audience listened to, applauded and appreciated perhaps the greatest artist ever brought to that city. The Fremonters added their plaudits with the rest and came home entirely enraptured with the wonderful program, including groups by Liszt, Chopin, Dohanyi and Kreisler-Rachmaninoff. Among those who went over from Fremont are: Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Sherwood, Miss Jeannette Sherwood and little Miss Jeannette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sherwood, Miss Ada Rice, Mrs. Elsie Datesman, Misses Elsie Pack, Josephine McCulloch, Edna Bruner, Loyola Reineck, Mrs. F. H. Dorr, Misses Bess and Bertha Middleswarth, Charlotte Dillon, Harriet Coe, Lucy Keeler, Frances Pease, Elizabeth Miller, Lucy Garvin, Marian Finch, Wilson, Helen Birkmier, Helen Hershey, Vonda Worst, John M. Sherman and others.
