

Rachmaninoff at Wellesley

WELLESLEY, March 6—Sergei Rachmaninoff's recital before an audience of students and friends that filled the Houghton Memorial Temple tonight was the first of a series arranged by Prof Hamilton Macdougall of the music department in answer to an undergraduate desire that great musicians play at the college.