music is broadly and comprehensively human. Rachmaninoff has made musical innovations in his time, but they are far from the wild-eyed extravagances of some of his younger countrymen. He believes in writing straight from the heart, like Tschai-kowsky, in avoiding "isms" or fads, or affectations, in trying to compose sincerely and simply, not to a special band of musical specialists, but to the great public of men and women of the world. Hence the popularity in the best sense of the word, of his music and the grip that this man has on the people. When they hear him they understand him. When they come in personal contact with him they find the man is as fine and as genuine as his music.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nye of 63 Burbank street were surprised at their home last night in honor of their 22nd wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Russell sang several solos; Will Hessler gave a sleight-of-hand performance, and Samuel Ray did acrobatic stunts. The celebrating couple were presented with a purse of gold by the company, in token of the occasion. Refreshments were served.
