

ONLY one musical offering will claim attention of local music patrons this afternoon. It will be a piano recital in the Auditorium given by Sergel Rachmaninoff, the eminent Russian composer-pianist. The selections listed for performance are the third Paganini Study arranged by Schumann, the Chopin B minor Sonata, four Chopin Studies, the pianist's own "Four Pictures," the Study op. 81 of Rubinstein, the Study opus 42 of Scriabine, and three Liszt Studies—the "Dance of the Gnomes," the D flat and the "Campanella."
