

Russ Composer Scores

Sergel Rachmaninoff, the great Russian composer, delighted a large gathering of music lovers at the Emery Auditorium Friday night.

Starting with the "Star-Spangled Banner," Rachmaninoff followed with the Beethoven Sonate No. 3 and then to the Chopin group.

Then came a group of his own works, beginning with his C-sharp minor prelude.

Rachmaninoff, by his concert, established himself deeply in the hearts of Cincinnati's music-loving public.
