

S. A. Koussevitzky and S. V. Rachmaninoff proposed to the Central Committee of the All-Russian Congress of Cities to organize a series of concerts with a 75-person orchestra for the benefit of the union. The artists will tour the largest cities of Russia completely free of charge, along the route: 1) Petrograd, Vilnius, Kiev, Poltava, Kharkov, Moscow; or 2) Petrograd, Kiev, Poltava, Kharkov, Ekaterinoslav, Rostov-on-Don, Moscow. It is expected that 50,000 rubles will be received from the concerts, which will go entirely to the purchase of warm clothing and underwear for soldiers in the front lines.
